

Bike Louisville Education, Encouragement and Enforcement Meeting

Post meeting notes

3/8/2012

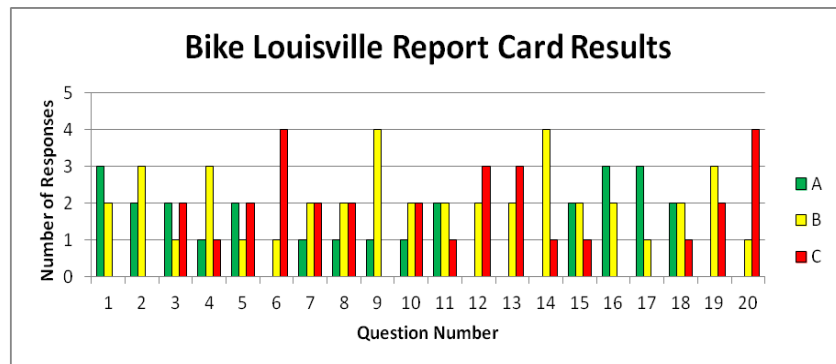

Next meeting: Tuesday, April 3rd

Location: Against the Grain: 401 E Main St.

Time: 11:30 pm- 12:45 pm

Attended:

Katie McBride
Rolf Eisinger
Andy Murphy
Jasmine Weatherby
Kirk Kandle
David Morse
Caitlin Collins
Mitchell Steber
Justine Saudan
Laura Trachtenberg
Patrick Rich

Post Meeting Topics

- The Bicycling Report Card (Report Out): attached are the results, but we are still accepting your grades.
- Bike Master Plan Report Card December 2011: Attached are the proposed products and services Bike Louisville will need to reach its 2012 objectives. Please bring your suggestions to next months meeting where we will decide which items and services we need.
- Bike Valet Parking: It was brought up today that there is a permanent bike valet parking area down on the Waterfront. We will explore this idea during next months meeting.
- Bike to Work Month: We are looking for people to help plan this years Bike to Work Month event. Please email Rolf.Eisinger@louisvilleky.gov if you are interesting in planning this event. We will be meeting in the next couple weeks to create a plan.
- Other Upcoming Events:
 - March 9: Parkside is Moving! Grand re-Opening Friday March 9th, 5pm-9pm 1377 Bardstown Road <http://parksidebikes.com/>
 - March 14: Frederick Law Olmsted Academy North is organizing a health night on March 14th. They were wondering if anyone would be able to set up a station/talk to students and parents about bike safety during the night.
 - March 31: University of Louisville Athletics: Green Week- March 31 The theme of the Base Ball game will be "Alternate Transportation."
 - April 28-29: Cherokee Triangle Art Fair has asked about bike parking and it sounds like Bicycling for Louisville has figured out how to provide and promote bicycle parking for the Cherokee Triangle Art Fair

Next meeting: Thursday, April 3rd

Location: Against the Grain Brewery: 401 E Main St.

Time: 11:30 pm- 12:45 pm